SCHEDULE

RULES OF THE TRINIDAD RIFLE ASSOCIATION

1. The Association shall be called the "Trinidad Rifle Association" (hereinafter referred to as the Association) and shall have its headquarters in Port-of-Spain.

2. The object of the Association shall be to promote and encourage marksmanship with rifle and pistol.

3. Members may be of five classes namely—Life Members, Ordinary Members, Associate Members, Service Members, and Temporary Members.

4. Life Members:

- (a) Any person who has rendered conspicuous service to the Association or to marksmanship in the Territory or who shall donate a sum of not less than $350.00 to the funds of the Association may be elected by the Committee to Life Membership and such person shall be exempt from annual subscriptions, and shall enjoy all privileges of ordinary members.

5. Ordinary Members:

- (a) Residents in the Territory who are duly proposed and seconded by Life and Ordinary members of the Association on the appropriate form may be elected by the Committee to Ordinary Membership subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Police.
- (b) The Entrance Fee and Annual Subscription, shall accompany application for membership, which shall be returned if the applicant is not elected.
- (c) The Entrance Fee and Annual Subscription as fixed by members at a General Meeting shall be payable by all Ordinary Members.

6. Associate Members:

- (a) Members of all clubs affiliated to the South Trinidad Rifle Association and of all clubs affiliated to the Association shall be Associate Members of the Association.
- (b) Associate Members shall pay no entrance fee and no annual subscription. They shall have no right to vote at meetings, nor may they hold office in the Association. They may be elected to Ordinary membership without the payment of an entrance fee.
- (c) Associate Members may use the ranges of the Association on recognised days of practise and may participate in competitions run by the Association. They must, however, produce evidence of their Club membership if they wish to shoot.

7. Service Members:

- (a) All members of the Trinidad and Tobago Defence Force, the Trinidad and Tobago Cadet Force and the Trinidad and Tobago Police Force may be elected by the Committee to Service Membership without entry fee, on the recommendation of an officer not below the rank of Major, Lieutenant Commander or Superintendent.
- (b) Service Members shall pay an Annual Subscription as fixed by a General Meeting and shall have all the rights of Ordinary Members.

8. Temporary Members:

Visitors to the territory may be elected by the Committee to Temporary Membership for a period not exceeding three months. Temporary Members shall have no right to vote or hold office. No entrance fee or subscription shall be payable by Temporary Members.

9. The Committee shall have the sole right of electing Members. Every candidate for election as a Life, Ordinary or Temporary Member shall be proposed and seconded on the appropriate form by Members of the Association. The names and addresses of all applicants together with the names of their sponsors shall be posted by the Honorary Secretary on the Association's Notice Board for a period of one month and shall also be submitted to the Commissioner of Police for approval. Any Member who has any objection to the election of a candidate shall inform the Honorary Secretary of the reasons and these shall be reported to the Committee. The votes of two-thirds of the Members of the Committee present at a meeting shall be necessary for the election of a candidate. The Honorary Secretary shall forthwith send to such Member notice of his election together with a book of the Rules of the Association.

No candidate who has been rejected shall be proposed again within a period of one year as a Member of the Association, nor shall he be admitted to the Association ranges as a visitor or otherwise except with the authority of the Committee.

10. The Association year shall coincide with the calendar year and all subscriptions shall become due on the 1st January. Any Member who has failed to pay his subscription by the 31st March shall have his name posted on the notice board; and if such subscription is still not paid by 31st May then he shall cease to be a member of the Association and the Honorary Secretary shall notify the Commissioner of Police accordingly so that any weapons may be confiscated. A member who has been so struck off may be reinstated by the Committee on payment of the entrance fee and annual subscription.

11. Any Member may resign from the Association by giving notice in writing to the Honorary Secretary, prior to the 1st March, after which date no notice of resignation shall exempt the Member from payment of the current year's subscription.

12. The Committee has the power to revoke permission to possess firearms, and to expel or otherwise discipline a member.

13. Officers of the Association:

The Officers of the Association shall be as follows:

President	... Commander, Trinidad and Tobago Defence Force
Vice-President	... To be elected annually at the Annual General Meeting. No Vice-President may serve for more than three consecutive years.
